CHOPPED OF FINGERS.

Japanese Vivisects Himself Because Wife Lies and Wants to Live in Honolulu.

Sugimura, a Japanese living at Waikeia is thoroughly in love with his wife. It is doubtful whether any other wife in Hilo is as intensely loved by her lord and master as is this selfsame Mrs. Sugimura. Mr. Sugimura is also a lover of truth. He especially admires this virtue in his spouse. At any rate he makes an abnormal sacrifice every time his better half is guilty of a lapse from the verities.

The Sugimura household has recently been rent with internal dissension, growing out of jealousies and misunderstandings. The husband seems to have had reasons to believe that his spouse had been untruthful to him.

He therefore wrote her a sweet note inclosing his little finger which he had neatly cut off with the meat ax. He told her that she had been guilty of ten lies; that he had ten fingers and would cut one off each day until she promised not to lie any more.

Unfortunately, the husband got drunk on the second day and was run in by the sleepless Captain Lake. His finger cutting program was temporarily interrupted. He paid his fine Wednesday and is free to continue the amputation of his digits.

Madame Sugimura precipitated the whole campaign of vivisection by insisting that she would rather live in Honolulu than Hilo. The husband, loyal to the Crescent city proposes to stay here in pieces if he cannot remain whole.

Deputy Sheriff Overend has digit No. 1 preserved in alcohol, a gruesome bit of testimony to the love of truth and loyalty to Hilo.

DEATH OF CHARLES ANDREWS.

The deceased leaves a wife and four adopted children. He was related to several prominent families in Honolulu, Mrs. L. C. Ables and Mrs. J. H. Fisher, being sisters. At the request of his relatives in Honolulu the body may be exhumed and taken to Honolulu for final interment.

DAMON'S VIEWS.

Says Wright's Troubles Do Not Reflect on Hawaiians.

Hon. Samuel M. Damon, Minister of Finance under the monarchy and the Republic, was asked this morning by a Bulletin reporter for his views on the situation with reference to the Treasurer from his standpoint of official experience as well as large interest in all matters relative to the welfare of the Territory.

"The unpleasant situation that has arisen with reference to Mr. Wright's conduct in the Treasury," Mr. Damon proceeded to reply, "has called forth a great deal of feeling on the part of the community, and much of this feeling has been directed against Hawaiians holding important offices and positions of financial trust under the government.

"Realizing this feeling and from my previous connection with the Treasury, I am led to think that the trouble in connection with Mr. Wright dates farther back than this particular case, and that much of this difficulty might have been avoided by a closer inspection by the authorities and especially by the Auditor.

"I am quite aware that the Governor has stated that Mr. Austin is my appointee. I am quite aware and hold myself in readiness to bear my share of this responsibility, for he was appointed upon my recommendation. But it is hardly fair to go so far back as the original appointment of Mr. Austin.

"What is needed in public as well as in private business is the constant and unremitting attention to details of all financial institutions. It is neither fair to the executive nor just to the subordinate to permit unrestricted conduct of money affairs without personal inquiry.

"Had Mr. Austin thoroughly, or had the executive and the auditing department thoroughly investigated, as was their duty under the Act, the entire working of the Treasury, this lamentable condition would have never arisen.

"To lay the blame on Mr. Wright is more than unjust and unfair. That one Hawaiian or ten Hawaiians have gone wrong, it is an improper inference to draw that the race as a whole is incapable of being trusted. I have known Hawaiians and have been associated with them all my life, and among them I have found many men and women of irreproachable honor and character, and since this occurrence in the Treasury I have personal knowledge that among Hawaiians it has caused a feeling of grief and sadness that one of their number should have forfeited the good name of their race by abusing his public trust.—Honolulu Bulletin.

The Banana Trade.

Peter Lee is still enthusiastic over the outlook for bananas. He believes a flourishing business can be done in the line from this port and that a demand will always exist for Hilo bananas that will build up a thriving growing business on this island.

Mr. Lee's first consignment was by the last Enterprise. From his experience in receiving bananas at the wharf, he finds it impracticable to take them by weight. Bananas come packed and there is neither time nor facilities for weighing them. He therefore will measure the bunches in the future instead of weighing them. He wants all bunches to come up to the 9-hand measurement and will pay a price equivalent to 14 cents a pound. Mr. Lee is convinced that it will not pay to ship bunches smaller than 9 hands.

Paper Mill Prospects.

S. M. Mayer, who has been in the city two weeks investigating the possibilities of manufacturing paper from bagasse, left this morning by the Claudine for Honolulu. He believes there will be a paper mill at Hilo within one year. Mr. Mayer did not secure the promise of enough bagasse to warrant the erection of a mill, but he did not go away without substantial encouragement. He found over here another very important supply of fibre which he thinks will justify his company in proceeding at once to the erection of a mill. This will be finally settled when he reaches Seattle. One thing positively settled by Mr. Mayer, is that he will recommend Hilo over any other place in the Islands for the location of a mill.

Is a Growing Line.

Captain Harris of the Chas. Levi Woodbury, said to a representative of the TRIBUNE Tuesday that the Julia E. Whalen would be put on the run between Honolulu and Kauai. This steamer was recently purchased by the owners of the Chas. Levi Woodbury at Honolulu for $2000. It is considered worth $5000 by shipping men. An agent at work for the firm reports good business in sight on her proposed new run. She will be brought to Hilo by Captain Harris in place of the Woodbury on her next trip, and after that will go to the Garden Isle.

The schooner Chas. Levi Woodbury arrived from Honolulu Monday with a general cargo. The schooner under the capable management of Captain Harris is getting her share of the trade between Hilo and Honolulu and intermediate points.

AUDITOR AUSTIN SUSPENDED.

Will Contest Governor's Action in the Court.

Auditor of the Territory, H. C. Austin, has been suspended from office by Governor Dole and Deputy Auditor Henry C. Meyers placed in charge. The order of suspension was issued by Governor Dole September 25 and contains seven charges of official misconduct and neglect of duty. The order says: For the foregoing reasons and in the interest of an honest administration of public affairs in this Territory, I, Sanford B. Dole, Governor of said Territory, hereby suspend you from the office of Auditor of said Territory, pending such answer and defense as you may see fit to make to the foregoing statements, charges and specifications, and such further investigations as may be made relative thereto. You are hereby ordered to turn over all books, accounts and other records of the office of Auditor of said Territory to Mr. Henry C. Meyers, Deputy Auditor of said Territory.

SANFORD B. DOLE,

Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

Governor Dole, upon receiving Mr. Austin's letter of refusal, requested High Sheriff A. M. Brown to serve the notice of suspension upon the Auditor, also to deliver the following letter to Deputy Auditor Meyers:

Executive Chamber, Territory of Hawaii.

Honolulu, Sept. 25, 1902.

Mr. Henry C. Meyers, Deputy Auditor of the Territory of Hawaii.

Sir:—Mr. Herbert C. Austin, Auditor of said Territory, having this day been suspended from said office by me, pending such answer and defense as he may see fit to make to certain statements, charges and specifications of official misconduct made by me against him, and such further investigation as may be had relative thereto, I, Sanford B. Dole, Governor of said Territory, hereby direct you to take charge and control of the books, papers, accounts, records, and all matters and things pertaining to said office and to conduct the said office until further notice.

SANFORD B. DOLE,

Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

The above order was made after a refusal on the part of the Auditor to comply with Governor Dole's request that he resign. Before the order of suspension was issued, Auditor Austin directed a communication to the Governor, setting forth that the executive had no power to suspend without a trial. Austin's letter closed with this paragraph:

I deem it my duty to thus advise you of my views upon this matter, arrived at as the result of much consideration, and supported by the advice of counsel, in order that you may possibly be deterred from an act which, if attempted, might lead to violence, and other unhappy consequences.

The Governor's order was followed up by placing police about the Auditor's office with instructions not to allow Mr. Austin to enter. Mr. Austin has secured legal counsel and will contest the matter in the courts.

Kindergarten Work.

The time having come to solicit funds to meet the yearly expenses of the Free Kindergarten, a few words in regard to the school may be of interest.

The term opens with seventy children in attendance and applications for admittance still coming in.

The principal, Miss Harriet Huggins, a trained Kindergarten teacher from Oakland, is assisted by Miss Mealoa Ulii, Miss Emma Porter and Miss Helen Kaina.

The growing appreciation of this work for little children of the various nationalities in our midst will be encouraging to the people of Hilo and vicinity who have so willingly contributed to the support of the school during the past seven years.

The ladies of the committee bespeak the good will of the newer residents to whom they may appeal for the first time. Donations from those who may not be called upon will be gladly received by the treasurer, Mrs. W. S. Terry or by members of the soliciting committee, Mrs. Balding, Dr. Wetmore, Miss Lyman, and Miss Deyo.

CHINESE PRISONER ESCAPES.

Severs Manacles With an Axe and Slopes.

Kan Kau, the Chinese who was serving time for an attempt to murder his wife, escaped from the chiangang last Monday. Kan Kau was a bad prisoner, having at one time attacked a guard with a hatchet. Since that time he has been decorated with about 25 feet of chain fastened to an ankle with a band of case hardened steel.

Kan Kau has been serving as cook for a gang of prisoners employed on Sheriff Andrews' garbage farm. He became indolent Monday and chopped wood. When no one was looking he would smite his chain with the blade of the axe. He thus effected his escape. He carries with him as a reminder of happy days, about two feet of chain riveted to his leg.
